

Friday June 12th

Word Families: Parents please give your children a spelling test and short dictation test based on this week's word study. This week the spelling test is made up of words from the -ill and -ug word families. The children can use their phonological awareness to sound these words out. In the dictation the children have a chance to practice some of their tricky words. See sample below.

Spellings : hand, land, stand, sell, bell, shell

Dictation Sentences:

1. I see the bell in his hand.
2. I fell next to the well.
3. The band can stand on the wall.

English Writing: Log in to Seesaw to complete your guided writing exercise based on sea life.

Music/Art

Log in to Seesaw to hear Sandra singing a song for you, and your Art lesson is linked to the song!

Also, illustrator and author Mary Murphy is an aunt of my friend, and she has some really cute printable pictures and cards that you can print off to colour in and send to your friends and family. The link to her website is here. <https://www.marymurphy.ie/try-this/> Her books are really cool!

Maths: Listen and watch the video below of The Enormous Turnip.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=mGw5yTOPTSQ>

-Allow your child to watch it once all the way through.

-On the second watch,ask your child the following questions. It might be helpful to pause the video at 3:04 to help your child answer the questions.

Responses can be submitted orally with an audio clip on Seesaw.

1) Who is 1st in the line?

2) Who is 3rd in the line?

3)Who is 6th in the line?

4)Who is last in the line?

5) What position is the farmer's wife in, in the line?

6) What position is the girl in, in the line?

7)What position is the dog in, in the line?

8) If the farmer called you to join the end of the line, what position would you be in?
