

Thursday June 4th

English:

-an words

Read the -an words and then write them underneath the correct picture.

Can you think of any more -an ending words?

Poem

Log in to Seesaw to hear Sarah saying the poem and complete the Seesaw activity. Fill in the blanks, the pictures are there to help you work out which -an word you need to write.

*Dan is a man,
A man with a plan,
To fix the fan
Inside the van.
"Not sure if I can..."
Dan began,
But he kept on trying
Til the engine ran.*

Maths:

Today's maths lesson is on Seesaw.

Gaeilge: Aimsir

- Today's Irish activity is on Seesaw.
- Listen to Sinead's instructions and draw the right weather to make a picture that matches the sentence.

Diversity Fortnight- Go to the Diversity Fortnight page on the school website to find today's activity.